JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE.

As all persons are not as perfect in church etiquette as they might be, the following suggestions may not be out of place:

Attending divine worship is not like attending a public show, though in this fast age there are some whose conduct make the difference appear but small.

First, then, there is no etiquette for any place, like the etiquette of common sense; it avails when the rules of the Chesterfields and the Hickmans often make one ridiculous. In entering church with a lady, precede her when ascending and descending stairs, as also in seeking a seat. In the latter case it is especially polite—you act as a sort of shield to her modesty, and then you save her the confusion of selecting a pew.

It is proper, if you are a believer, to kneel or stand at prayer, according to the custom of the church. To disregard these is vulgar—at least, it shows too much false pride, or too little reverence for the requirements of Christianity.

Excessive whispering during service is decidedly vulgar. It is sometimes necessary to address an undertone remark to your companion or companions, but seldom.

Listen to the service—especially the sermon. In this age of church opera, called music, you cannot help hearing that part of the ceremony. It would wake up a Van Winkle. But the sermon you must not sleep over or disregard. It is wrong. Appear to hear if you do not. A good way is when the minister is dull, and you can't listen—which happens often enough to make a rule—to study phrenology examining the bumps of heads before you. An hour may be passed thus politely and pleasantly.

If you chew tobacco, do not use it in church. It is annoying to those around you, and then the sexton gives you jessee.

Never leave church during service, unless it is absolutely necessary—as in sickness, a house a fire or a professional call.

It is vulgar to come late. Sometimes it is unavoidable—a person wishes to display a new dress, watch chain or perhaps a beau. It will occur sometimes that a poor goose wants to be driven from his seat—then it is proper enough also. These causes, and the like, excuse late coming and the congregation endure them. Any other delay is unendurable.

Dress as plainly as possible. We don't mean that a lady should appear in her morning-wrapper nor a gentleman in his shirt sleeves. A nice medium is the thing in all matters—ladies should not be taken for milliner's show cases, nor gentlemen for be-jewelled and neck-tied monkeys. A plebian goes to church to show fine clothes, an aristocrat, to show respect to God.

In entering and in leaving the house, don't walk too slow like the shoddies, nor too fast like the bushfula. In the one case people ridicule you for affectation; in the other there is danger of knocking down the pews or running over somebody. "Haste slowly."

When you look around too much in church, people think you want to show your profits, or that you want to attract attention to your style, or that you want to marry, or that, like poor wheat, there is not weight enough about your head to keep it still.

Don't look too pious in church either—it is as suspicious as too much levity. Religious worship is neither a joke nor an emetic. If you feel extraordinarily devotional begin to think about putting something in the treasury, and it will shorten your face quickly, and spread over it the pleasant look of duty.

A CHEERFUL FACE.

It "doeth good like a medicine." Every one knows how instinctive a thing is sympathy with the feelings around us. You meet a friend who has a fit of the "blues"—his face is long, his manner sad, his voice low and melancholy. If your own feelings were previously bright, they are suddenly darkened. The effect is that of a dash of cold water on a flame, that a gentle puff of wind would have coaxed into a steady blaze. There come hours of grief to us all, when we go wearily, as under a burden, and when it behooves us to weep. I do not allude to such times, nor yet to those when we go, as sympathizing friends, to a house of mourning. We are commanded to "weep with them that weep." But amid the vexations, and perplexities, and little wearing cares of our every day life, to carry even a cheerful countenance, how sweet it is! sometimes how heroic! "There comes my teacher," said a little girl, as a fair, sunny faced woman opened the school room door. "She always looks happy." A happy teacher makes a happy class. Cheerfulness is magnetic. The quality of courage and hope, ringing in every tone of the teacher's voice, awakens energy and ardor in the hearts of the pupils. The secret of the happy heart is in keeping near the Master. Christ in the heart a constant guest, can it help rejoicing? Christ holding the hand, Christ making the path, Christ healing the disciple, can there be room for melancholy? Can troubles press heavily that are day by day and night by night rolled into the open sepulchre beside the cross? Sometimes, alas! we forget to pray. Our prayers degenerate into forms of words. Our Bibles gather dust. Our faith burns low. Our love becomes cold—our zeal, alas! either could not be, but lukewarm, and hateful to the Master. And we wonder that we cannot be happy! There is no happiness possible for the Christian except in the shadow of the mercy seat. The lamps must be trimmed every day, or they will refuse to burn clearly and steadily. Let us try to be more than ever cheerful, that so we may be more than ever successful in our vocation. Winners of souls, "rejoice evermore."

THRUST IN TIMES OF TRIAL.—When a room is filled with light we see every object in it—know their place and purpose; when the light is withdrawn we know they are still there, and that the appearance will be the same when it again returns; yet we are afraid to trust God in the dark—cannot believe that He is just the same when sensible comforts are withdrawn. When all is bright before us, it is easy to "take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord;" but in hours of privations, when friends seem far from us, and our acquaintance in darkness, there will arise the cruel doubt that He does not love to quite as well because His love no longer comes to us through their hearts—through the channel of their kind words and deeds.

When are gloves unsaleable? When they are kept on hand.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE IN THE TOWN OF SALEM.

AS EXECUTORS OF JAMES HALL DECD the undersigned will sell to the highest bidder on Thursday February 24th the valuable real estate of said deceased; consisting of one of the most desirable business stands in the town of Salem, situated on Main Street, on the North West corner of the public square, facing the Salem Female Academy. "HONEST" JOHN, SNEAKING JOHN AND COUSIN PHIL.

Pike having denounced the Legislature announces the first and last names of this type of radical Statesmen for speeches at Franklin Court next week.

The Granville or Franklin tax payer who feeds and shoes an ignorant freedmen all the year and then allows him to vote for "Honest" John or cousin Phil, should have a guardian appointed to take care of him. Major Smith, the President of the unleased N. C. Rail Road, would 'sink the plantation" before he would allow it.

Laborers on the North Carolina Rail Road were dismissed because they voted the Conservative ticket. If intelligent white men are not allowed to vote the Conservative ticket, why should ignorant black men be allowed to vote the Radical ticket?

Sneaking John, better known as Senator Pool, had an act passed in 1868, punishing with fine and imprisonment any person who should "dismiss from his employment or service, any man because of any vote he had given or was going to give, or who should deny patronage or refuse to give employment to the family of any man, because of any vote he had given or was going to give." Sneaking John, we say was the author of this bill. As soon as it passed, we dismissed Solomon Lunsford from our service because he belonged to the League, we told Solomon we dismissed him because the Legislature had passed the law. Solomon said he wished the Legislater would attend to their own affairs and let him alone; he could take better care of himself than the Legislater could." He might have added, and better care, too, of State Bonds than the Legislater could.

If one, or either, or all of these gentlemen are like Moore often tied at having their names coupled together, we are ready to make ample apology before they meet us on Fayetteville street, armed with a big Brother and a little five shooter. Col. Moore, who subscribes to fifty copies of the Standard for his negro constituency, not one of whom, John Page said, could read, gave us no time to apologize, and now, having fallen down at us, it is too late. We hear that the great offence for which he sought our life was coupling his name, to use his own language, "with such a d—n rascal as Sinclair's." For our personal safety, we should be glad if sneaking John would come from Washington and lobby through a bill declaring what radical gentlemen should be named together in the same columns of a newspaper. Such an act would strengthen the main plank in the platform. "Let us have peace."

IMPORTANT CASE.

The matter of William Biggs, barred as an attorney, by Jaybird Jones, is now being argued before the Supreme Court, by Hon. R. F. Moore, who was heard on Tuesday, from ten to one o'clock.

Chief Justice Pearson asked Mr. Moore if Judge Jones had counsel in Court. Mr. Moore replied, he supposed not, as the notice was alone to the Clerk to send up its record, and Judge Jones, perhaps, was not aware of it.

In the course of his argument, Mr. Moore said, if the attorney, in a state of nudity, were to appear before the Court, he could not be punished by being disbarred.

Judge Reade.—Do you say, Mr. Moore, that the Court could not punish an attorney who appeared naked before them?

Mr. Moore.—I did not say that. The law has fixed the punishment for contempt.—The Court could fine and put him in jail; and if they attempted to punish in any other way, they would violate the law themselves. For the punishment for contempt is fine and imprisonment, and so fixed by statute.

About 1 o'clock, the Chief Justice asked Mr. Moore if he had other cases to cite, and intimated if he had much more to say, the Court would hear him to-morrow.

Mr. Moore said he had to consult that venerable man, Lord Coke, and had yet much to say.

The Court adjourned.

The case is one of great interest to the Bench, the Bar and the whole people.

If a drunken Judge can't be told of his drunkenness out of Court, or called a Jaybird, then it is time to close your Courts of justice, and let vice and lewdness rule.

CARPET BAG INFLUENCE.

On Tuesday last the House of Commons, by a vote of 56 to 30, passed the Senate bill, repealing the railroad appropriations of the last session. On Tuesday night Senator Sweet returned to the city, after an absence of three weeks. A few carpet-baggers put their heads together, Senator Abbott was telegraphed to, who replied to them that Littlefield would be in Raleigh, not "to night," as heretofore, but on Saturday night next.

On this being promulgated to the House yesterday, a motion was made to reconsider the vote by which the repealing act was passed on Tuesday. The motive for this movement is said to be, that Sweet will lose a lat contract on the W. N. C. Railroad, if this repealing act shall be ratified and become a law.

Verily the carpet-baggers have strength and influence in Holden's administration, yet; and they exercise them when you begin to interfere with their pockets. If Pike would have held his peace, we have no doubt he would have been reimbursed in some way for loss of the public printing, but he spoiled his chances by kicking up too soon.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 23, 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour. Messrs. Williams, of Harnett and Pou, recorded their votes in the affirmative upon the bill repealing Railroad appropriations.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Snipes for Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported favorably upon the resolution in regard to Indian affairs; placed upon the calendar.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Malone: A bill in regard to the issuance of grants in certain cases. Referred.

Mr. Ludin moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill repealing Railroad appropriations passed its third reading.

Mr. French took the floor in advocacy of the motion. He had since the passage of the bill received a dispatch stating that Genl. Littlefield would be here by Saturday at farthest, and would be ready to submit a full and satisfactory statement in regard to the management of the Western Division of the Western N. C. R. R. The Directors of the Road had been summoned to Washington D. C., to assist in making this report and the contractors had also been summoned to be paid for their work, but the money was withheld by the advice of counsel, &c.

Mr. Welch next followed in support of the motion. He thought that the passage of such a bill would be a death blow to the interests of the Western portions of the State. He wished to let the motion to reconsider pend for a few days, in order that gentlemen might be able to give this most important matter that calm and dispassionate consideration which its pre-eminent importance demanded, &c.

Mr. Malone argued at length in favor of reconsideration, and coincided with the gentlemen who preceded him in the opinion that it would be sound wisdom and policy to let the motion pend for a few days, in order that a full development of the affairs of the Western N. C. Railroad, might be arrived at, and then the alleged necessity of passing this repudiation bill might be obviated, &c.

Mr. Candler supported the motion to reconsider. During his remarks, he said that if this repudiation bill became a law, that the people of Western North Carolina, both Republicans and Democrats, would unite and come out for a sweeping repudiation of both the new and old debt. He felt it his duty to say that if these Railroad appropriations were repealed, he would be forced to take the stump in his section in favor of an universal repudiation of the new and old debts both, and he believed that the Western people would vote for it en masse. He thought that there was far more justice in repudiation of the old debt than the new, &c., &c. He contended that the passage of this measure was ruin to the West, ruin to the contractors who had gone to work in good faith, and ruin in every way, to the whole people of that section, and would force them as a matter of self-preservation, to advocate the repudiation of both the new and old debt. He did not see what the State would lose by letting this matter go over until Monday.—The gentleman from New Hanover (French) had a dispatch from a United States Senator, stating that Littlefield would certainly be here by Saturday, ready to make a full exhibit of his trust; then, why not let this matter be postponed until they could get at those statements, &c.

Mr. Seymour followed in the same strain and stated his surprise that Republicans should vote for this bill which beyond all peradventure, signed and sealed the death warrant of the Republican party in this State. He concluded by moving that the consideration of the motion to reconsider be postponed until Tuesday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Ingram favored the proposed postponement.

Mr. Seymour called the previous question upon his motion of postponing.

The yeas and nays were called and the House sustained the call by a vote of yeas 41 nays 39.

The motion to postpone was then put to a vote and adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Banner, Bowman, Candler, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Clayton, Crawford, Davidson, Dixon, Eagles, Forkner, French, Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Hayes, Hilliard, Hodgin, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Laffin, Leary, Malone, Mayo, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, Painter, Price, Proctor, Ragland, Reynolds, Seymour, Simonds, Stanton, Sweat, Sykes, Vestal, Vest, Welch, White, Wilkie, Williamson, and Wilson—49.

NAYS.—Messrs. Alge, Armstrong, Ashworth, Barnes, Blair, Boddie, Ellis, Gibson, Green, Grier, Harris, of Wake, Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodnett, Hoffman, Humphries, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Pearson, Pou, Renfrow, Robinson, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Martin, Smith, of Wayne, Strudwick, Thompson, Willis, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson—40.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill to change the fees of witnesses in the Superior Courts (making the fee of attendance $1 per day.)

The question recurred upon the motion to indefinitely postpone.

The question recurred upon the motion to indefinitely postpone, which was put to a vote and lost for the want of a quorum.

The bill then passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 53 nays 24.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to lay off and establish the county of Swain (to be made from portions for Cherokee, Macon and Jackson counties.

Mr. Robinson took to floor in explanation of the reasons which influenced him to introduce the bill, and presented petitions numerously signed by voters and tax payers of that section, proposed to be erected into a new county.

Mr. R. proceeded to describe the hardships which the people of that section were laboring under and the convenience and relief that the establishment of this county would afford them. Mr. R. continued for some time in advocacy of the measure.

Mr. Welch advocated the passage of the bill.

Mr. Pou opposed.

Mr. Vest favored.

Eagles, col., moved to indefinitely postpone.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 34 nays 40.

A long discussion arose, during which Mr. Robinson again argued in support of the bill in remarks of some length. He repeated the reasons why the bill should pass, and called upon eastern members to deal as liberally and fairly with the western section, as western members had dealt with the east, &c.

Upon the passage of the bill on its second reading, the yeas and nays were called and resulted in a vote of yeas 40, nays 31.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the rules were suspended, and the bill was made special order for Friday night next, at 8 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the rules were suspended, and the bill to repeal the act to protect Sheriffs in the sale of land, was taken up and passed its several reading.

On motion of Mr. McMillan, the bill concerning the Inspectors of the city of Wilmington, was made special order for to morrow at 11 o'clock.

By Mr. Justice: A bill to amend the State Constitution. (The bill provides that section 4 of article 5, and lines 1, 2, 3, and down to the word "question" in line 4 of section 6 of the Bill of Rights be stricken from the Constitution.) The bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

SECOND SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to change the rule of evidence in certain cases. (Published.)

The question recurred upon a proviso recommended by the Judiciary Committee, which was adopted. After some further amendment the bill passed its several readings.

A message was received from the Senate, transmitting a number of resolutions and bills; all of which were appropriately disposed of.

On motion of Mr. Vest, the rules were suspended and the bill to enable the North western N. C. R. R. Co. to complete the first division of their road, was taken up (the bill allows the Company to issue and sell first mortgage bonds.

Adjourned.

SUPREME COURT.

TUESDAY, Feb 22, 1870.

Court assembled at the usual hour.

The argument in the case of Winslow vs. Commissioners of Perquimans county, was concluded by Merrimon for the defendants, and R. H. Battle for the plaintiff. Mr. Battle appeared for Gov. Bragg, and only read the latter's brief to the Court.

Upon motion of Sion Rogers, the case of L. P. Bayne vs. D. A. Jenkins, Public Treasurer, was ordered to be put upon the docket. No day has yet been assigned for a hearing of the case.

The case of Biggs, ex parte, was then called.

Mr. Fowle opened the case by reading the record aloud to the Court.

Mr. B. F. Moore, leading counsel in the case, then followed in a long and powerful argument.

He said it was a matter of regret to the gentlemen of the legal profession of North Carolina that any difficulty should ever have arisen between the Bench and the Bar; that he hoped the present case would finally settle the law, so that the rights and privileges of attorneys would be clearly defined; that the law of contempt ought to be settled on such a basis as, not only to maintain the respect due the Bench, but also to leave unimpaired the dignity of the Bar. That few cases of contempt had ever occurred heretofore in North Carolina, such had ever been the harmony existing between the Bench and the Bar.

Mr. Moore then entered into the legal argument, contending, in brief, that the common law of England respecting contempts of Court, is the law of this State, except so far as it may have been changed by statutory enactments; that the act of the General Assembly, April 10th, 1869, chap. 177, embraces all the matters which can now constitute contempts of Court; that this act disposes of the whole question of contempt, and defines what is a contempt of Court, that under the act of '69 above mentioned, this is not a case of contempt, that under the common law it is not a case of contempt, that there is but one paragraph in Brigg's article, which contains any expression of disrespect, which is as follows: "And from what we can gather from those who were more fortunate than ourselves, we should suppose that they would have learned nothing new, the charge being almost identically the same with the one delivered some six months since, with this important exception, His Honor seems to have deserted the profane poetical masters, and confined most of his quotations to the Holy Scriptures, a happy omen, if it is possible to believe any thing happy in such a character."—That no exception can be taken to any part of this paragraph other than to what is contained in the words, "a happy omen, if it is possible to believe anything happy in such a character"—that these words so written and published, cannot be construed into a contempt of Court—that to constitute a contempt of Court, the language written or spoken must be used in reference to the official acts of the Judge, or must be used of him while in the actual discharge of his duties and tend to disturb the Court—that remarks criticising the conduct of men who occupy judicial stations, or reflecting upon them as individuals, or exposing their vices and follies, cannot be construed into a contempt of the Court, unless spoken in the presence of the Court. That the act to be a contempt of the Court must be within the judicial cognizance of the Court—that Mr. Bigg's article was written by him as an editor, not as an Attorney, and therefore that its publication was not a contempt of Court.

Mr. Moore contended further that admitting this act to have been a contempt of Court, Mr. Biggs ought not to have been disbarred; for fine and imprisonment was the proper punishment.

Mr. Moore's argument was an able, convincing, and eloquent one, replete with learning, and delivered in an earnest and forcible manner. The Reporter regrets that he cannot furnish the public with a more full and complete abstract of the argument.

Mr. Moore did not quite finish his argument this morning. He will conclude it to-morrow.

SUPREME COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 23, 1870.

Court assembled at the usual hour.

The Chief-Justice stated that no day would be assigned for a hearing of the case of Bayne vs. Jenkins; but that it would be taken up in regular order.

Mr. Moore resumed the argument in the Biggs case, and after speaking for an hour and a half; concluded by recapitulating the main points of his argument.

Mr. Moore owes to the Bar of North Carolina, which he ornaments with such comprehensive learning, such profound legal ability, and such sterling, unwavering integrity, the duty of publishing in full, his argument in this case; for, it is a full and complete exposition of the law of contempts, and clearly and exactly defines the relative rights and privileges of Judges and attorneys in their conduct towards each other, in Court and out of Court. It is to be hoped that Mr. Moore will prepare his argument for publication at an early date.

After Mr. Moore had concluded, Mr. Fowle followed in behalf of the Petitioner. He made three points, and established each by clearest reasoning:

1st. That if Mr. Biggs' act was a contempt of Court, fine and imprisonment was the proper punishment; and therefore, that his Honor erred in disbarring him:

2nd. That the article was not a libel upon the Court, but only a criticism of Judge Jones' character as a man, and that Mr. Biggs was guilty of no offense; therefore, that his Honor erred in serving the rule upon Mr. Biggs in the first instance.

3rd. That the answer of Mr. Biggs was responsive to the rule; and therefore, that he was entitled to his discharge.

In support of this point, Mr. Fowle cited the case of ex parte Moore.

Mr. Fowle's argument was brief but right to the point; and it was spoken in his usual earnest and forcible style.

The Court then proceeded with the Docket, calling and disposing of the following cases from the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 7th Districts:

Mason vs. Osgood—motion to dismiss for want of notice of appeal, refused, and the case continued to next term. R. G. Lewis argued in support of the motion.

Gashine, Emory & Co., vs. Baer & Eppler, from Craven. Argued by W. S. Mason for plaintiffs—no counsel appearing for defendants.

State vs. John Harries, Chatham, submitted without argument by the Attorney General.

To-morrow cases from the 7th, 8th and 9th Districts will be called peremptorily.

Messrs. Wilson and Dowd from Charlotte, made their appearance in the Court Room to day.

At 1 30 P. M. Court adjourned till to-morrow at 10 A. M.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest illuminating Oil ever offered to the public, and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra." Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO,

PRICE $33 PER TON OF 2,000 lbs., AT NORFOLK VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

R. Lederman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

BARBECUE.—There is to be a barbecue, accompanied by speeches, with the usual trimmings, at Jacob Sorrell's on Saturday next, 26th inst. We acknowledge an invitation to attend, and, if circumstances would allow, would like to "swing round" about the time the "barbecue" is taken off the "skids," but Dr. Yates, who has charitably taken charge of our political health, advises against such indulgence, and we fear, therefore, we cannot be present. We wish those who may go a pleasant time.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—As we said before, there has been, and so far as we are aware, there is yet, a regulation or law or ordinance forbidding any citizen of Raleigh or any body else putting clay or dirt of any kind on the streets, and so well was this understood that no one ventured to dump even a wheel-barrow load of rubbish on the streets for fear of being hauled up. Persons building along Fayetteville street have been refused the privilege, very properly we think, of hauling the clay from the cellars on to the streets. But when the contract was put out to dig a cellar to the Market House, the contractor was allowed to put the clay on the streets, and it has been piled on until, now, they are almost impassible. It is this that has enhanced the necessity, if not created it, for McAdamizing the streets.

The whole thing shows, upon the very face, that it has been "cut and dried" from the beginning—the parties known who were to have the contract, and in order to secure it to those to whom it was promised, we see proposals advertised for, and the announcement publicly made that the contract will be awarded to no one outside the corporate limits of the city. A man residing just outside the city limits, having plenty of stone and teams to haul it, however cheaply he might be willing to do the work, is notified in advance that he can't come in, for "no bids will be received outside the city." If outsiders were allowed to compete, it would interfere with the nice little arrangement of the "insiders."

But why go to the enormous expense, at this time, of paving the two streets, Fayetteville and Wilmington, and these alone? Hargett, between the two, needs paving as much as they do; so does Martin. Why not require the property holders on each side to pave to the middle opposite their lots? The owners of the property would be more benefited than anybody else; and if we are not mistaken, some who own business houses on Martin street have already paved the street opposite to them, at their own expense.

The people are not able to pay for this work now, and they ought not to be required to attempt it, just to give a fat job to Tom Coats, Prairie or any body else. Instead of McAdamizing, let those who put the dirt and clay on the streets haul it off again and dump it on Nash Square or Baptist Grove.

It is very easy for a set of men, clothed in a "little brief authority," who pay, comparitively a very slight tax to the city, to pass resolutions for expensive works, and in order to put the contracts in the hands of favorites, cut off competition by advertising that "no bids will be received outside the city." They had just as much right to say that no bid will be received outside the Eastern Ward; or in fact, to say that no body's proposal would be considered but Tom Coats's, or J. P. Prairie's, or some other individual's. The reservation shows the animus and intent of the whole matter, namely, to give a fat job to certain parties at the expense of the tax payers of the city.

REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

This body was called to meet in this city on Tuesday, by Gov. Holden, the Chairman. No one met, we believe, but the Governor, and he adjourned over to Wednesday. When Wednesday came, we employed two short and three long hand reporters, and started them out to give us all that should be said and done in the meeting. When night came the poor fellows returned straggling in, tired, hungry and dry (metaphorically.) They had been hunting for the meeting of the Republican State Executive Committee all day, through mud, snow and slush, without being able to come up with it. They are now grounded in the belief that the Governor's call for the meeting, published in the Standard, was only a hoax, and that he didn't intend to have a meeting, no how.

It is our private opinion that owing to the snow on Wednesday morning, many of the members of the Committee failed to leave home Tuesday time enough to to get here; and that others, expecting to eat salt fish next week, drank too much water in the morning, and were, consequently, detained from the meeting though present in the city.

We shall look with great anxiety for a report of the proceedings of the meeting, in the Standard this morning.

A Correspondent sends us the following statement of current expenses of the Commissioners Court, of Cumberland county, N. C., for the Fiscal Year ending Sept. 1st, 1869:

J. W. Hopkins, services as Commissioner,
135 regular days at $3	$405 00
140 extra " " $3	420 00
Mileage, 108 miles, 5c	5 40	$830 40
M. N. Leary, Sr, services as Commissioner,

Mileage 667 miles 5c	$33 35	$963 35
Warren Carver, services as Commissioner,
136 regular days at $3	$408 00
118 extra " " 3	$354 00
Mileage, 1448 miles 5c	72 40	$834 40
Geo. W. Wheeler services as Commissioner,
139 regular days at $3	$417 00
6 extra " " 3	18 00
Mileage, 2973 miles 5c	148 65	$583 65
Daniel Darroch services as Commissioner,
128 regular days at $3	$384 00
19 extra " " 3	57 00
Mileage, 2122 miles 5c	136 10	$597 10
Total,		$3,808 90

By A. MCPHERSON, Jr., Deputy Clk.

The correspondent gives the following statement of the distances from the Court House, that each Commissioner lives: J. W. Hopkins, half a mile; M. N. Leary, three hundred yards; Warren Carver, three miles; G. W. Wheeler, nine miles, and Daniel Darroch, seven miles.

We would like to ask our correspondent if any of his Commissioners have been indicted by the Grand Jury for charging too much mileage? If not, we are ahead of him, up here, for we've got one indicted, and are watching the others mighty closely.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION FLUID.—This new article of light material, for which D. S. Hill, of Louisburg, is Agent for this and other Southern States, seems to present claims to public favor as strong at least as any other burning fluid in use.—Many who have used it certify to its superiority over any other they have tried. Its qualities were exhibited in our office, by the Agent, when in Raleigh, and we, with several gentlemen present, were thoroughly convinced as to the brilliancy of light it produced, being equal if not superior to that of gas, and we are persuaded that what is claimed for it in regard to cheapness and non explosive qualities is also true. The means of manufacturing it is said to be easy and expeditious, which is much in its favor.

Persons desiring county or State rights are referred to the advertisement of Mr. Hill, to be found in our columns. They can communicate with him at Louisburg, N. C.

Twelve-hundred-dollar Stevens was in Newbern, attending a dog fight, on Saturday last. We suppose he drew his $7 for that day's work, which is all right, as we suppose he was as valuable to the State while attending a dog fight in Newbern as he would have been in his seat in the House of Commons.

Mr. R. D. Wade of Charlotte has accepted the situation of Master Machinist on the North Carolina Railroad, tendered him some time since.

NORFOLK, VA., Jan. 7, 1870.

Editor Sentinel, Raleigh, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—Please allow us to state that the freight on Shell Lime has been reduced over half of former rates, on the S. & R., R. & G., W. & W. and N. C. Railroads. This arrangement to last until 18th of March, and to urge upon your people the real value of this Renovator of the soil, and the importance of sending us their cash orders now, that they may realize the advantages of this liberal reduction in freights.

At the Gulf, Chatham county on the 20th ult., by Rev. R. B. Sutton, Mr. J. M Melvin, and Miss META C., daughter of the late Brooks Harris Esq

OBITUARY.

Fell to sleep, in the blessed hope of a glorious resurrection, on the 9th day of February 1870, in the city of Raleigh GEORGE MONTEATH WHITING Esq., a member of the N. C Bar, on the twenty-eighth anniversary of his birt -day.

Capt GEO M. WHITING was born in the city of Raleigh, and in May 1861 entered the Confederate service, as a private in Ransom's Battery; but growing eager for more active service, in July of the same year, he became a common soldier in the Bethel Regiment When this Regiment was disbanded he returned to North Carolina and was instrumental in enlisting a company, which was eventually attached to the 47th N. C Regiment, and in which he was appointed First-Lieutenant. In this Regiment he served until the close of the war, having received his promotion to a Captaincy on the fatal field of Gettysburg, during the second day of the fight On the third day of the same battle he was severely wounded in the right temple, and remained four days on the battle field, in a state of insensibility, and without any attention, but his life was providentially preserved, by his falling with the wounded side of his head, in a shallow stream of running water. Hence he was taken as a prisoner to Johnson's Island, where he remained until the end of the war. The great loss of blood from his wound, together with the hardships of his prison life, planted the seed of the consumption which terminated his life.

He died a martyr to the Lost Cause he loved so well. One of the obscure heroes, who are sometimes greater than the illustrious ones.

After the war Mr. WHITING pursued the study of the Law under the direction of the Hon. Thos Bragg, and in 18.7, was licensed to practise in the County Courts of N. C; in 1873 he obtained his license to practice in the Superior Courts of this State. While struggling bravely with the difficulties, which every junior must encounter at the bar, and winning his way for himself in the noble profession he had selected—he was stricken down in the very morning of life, by the fell disease which ended his earthly career.

So has fallen another of our young men of promise. He had noble aims—he led a pure life—he kept his honor virgin. He won the respect of the community in which he lived, and the love of his own fire-side. He bore good fortune meekly—he endured evil with constancy—and through good or evil, he main ained truth always. A christian, gentleman and soldier—he had a kind heart, he was as true as the Sun He never varnished truth—he never broke his bond—he never fa led a friend. And above all, one of Christ's faithful soldiers and servants—he fell, fighting manfully under the Banner of the Cross, having the testimony of a good conscience in the communion of the Catholic Church, in the confidence of a certain faith, in the comfort of a reasonable religious and holy hope, in favor we trust with his God, and in perfect charity ith the world. H.

In this city, on the 21st inst., ANTHONETT HICKS, aged 47 years, formerly of Wilmington. She was honest and faithful in the discharge of all her duties, and a consistent member of the A. M. E. Church.

Tuesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The Committee on Foreign Affairs discussed Cuba; no result.

Farragut is here sick.

Dispatches to politicians from Texas, announce the nomination in caucus, which is equivalent to election, of Morgan C. Hamilton for the short term and Gov. Flanagan for the five years term in the U. S. Senate.

Indications in the executive session of the Senate yesterday were that Judge Pearce will not be confirmed.

The newly elected Senators from Georgia visited the President who again disclaimed any interference between them and Hill and Miller.

SENATE.—The credentials of Farrow and Whitley, Senators from Georgia, were presented.—Drake said both credentials were in utter disregard of law. The credentials were finally withdrawn. Without further business the Senate adjourned in honor of the day.

HOUSE.—A resolution censuring Mungen was referred to the Committee on Rules.

Voorhees made a personal explanation, denying that he ever belonged to any secret political organization or aided in resisting the draft during the war.

The Consul, at Santiago de Cuba, under date of Jan. 3rd, writes to the Secretary of State that the political state of affairs in that Consular district is in a most deplorable condition. "The assassination at Bayamo, of citizens sent from that city by order of Count Valmesada, was nothing more than what is daily perpetrated.

It is well known that Valmesada aspires to the position of Captain General of the Island, and in order to increase his popularity among the blood-craving Catalhars, who are operating in his behalf, both in this Island and in Spain, gives imperative orders to make this a war of extermination, and we daily learn of peaceful citizens residing in the country being assassinated by the mobilists of the Spanish troops. These orders are probably carried to an extreme from the fact that those commanding such troops are constantly supplying some Cuban proscribed dealers of this city, and whose object it is to ruin the country and forward to their agents such portions of the crops as may fall into their hands.

The planters are persecuted to such a degree as to be compelled to flee from their estates and their crops are immediately sequestrated and appropriated to private purposes.

Very little credit can be placed upon the Spanish press, which maintains that the insurrection is finished in this department, which is far from the truth The insurrection continues in full force and frequent encounters take place as is seen by the frequent arrivals of wounded Spanish soldiers.

The Cubans being better armed and disciplined than formerly, in many cases take the offensive, &c., &c.

It is estimated 50 per cent of the Spanish volunteers from sickness are put hors de combat; the hospitals are full to overflowing.

It is impossible for any force Spain can send to terminate the rebel force, owing to the climate and topography of the country, while both contending parties destroy every vestige of agriculture.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, not for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

No Life Insurance Company in the United States offers superior advantages for insurance or investment, than the St. Louis Mutual. It is managed by gentlemen of the highest capacity and standing and is among the largest companies of those acquainted with Insurance Companies.

Its policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly; and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All the Policies are non-forfeitable and all participate in profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, and the profits of its business are paid not to stockholders but to its policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.

W. J. LAWTON, President. R. J. LIGHTFOOT, Secretary.

The Georgia Mutual
IS A HOME COMPANY.

IT IS THE PIONEER COMPANY OF THE SOUTH, in all the new and liberal features of Life Insurance, presenting advantages not offered by any other Company, note the following points.

1st. Low Rates of Insurance, with a credit of one third, the Premium as a perpetual Loan.
2d. THIRTY DAYS GRACE for the payment of all premiums, and the Policy held good for that length of time.
3d. Policies Non-forfeiting after the first payment.
4th. Policies indisputable from any cause save fraud.
5th. No restrictions of Residence, Travel or occupation.
6th. It is a Mutual insurance Company ninety four per cent of the Profits are divided among the insured, on the contribution plan, and as money commands higher rates of Interest in the South than North or East, the probability is almost certain that the dividends will exceed those of Northern Companies, this reducing the premiums to their lowest actual cost.

7th. Under the Charter of this Company, Policies of insurance are not subject to the debts of the Insured. Polices in favor of a wife or children are payable to them or their guardians direct.

8th. This company issues policies guaranteeing six per cent. compound interest in addition to the insurance of the amount insured. Parties about to insure would do well to examine the tables and plans of this company before insuring in any other company. CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to trespass on the fields of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, farmers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience, men of probity and undoubted reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in times of peace may pass and repass the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

VALENTINES—SOMETHING NEW.

Owing to the fact that some who have received Valentines wish to reciprocate and others who have not, wish to send some, that they in turn may receive, Cupid will allow them to be sent during the early month of February (this year). And in order to assist in this accommodating arrangement, I have just opened a new lot of sentimental ones, which can be had at half price.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 529 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
